Accordingly, they are determined to establish, within the framework provided by the law, an effective working relationship at all levels in which members of the bargaining unit are employed.

1.3 Singular and Plural

Wherever the singular is used, the same shall be construed as meaning the plural if the facts or context require.

- (c) To constitute personal harassment or bullying, behaviour may be repeated or persistent or may be a single serious incident.

If the matter is resolved to the complainant's satisfaction the matter is deemed to be resolved.
- (b) An employee (complainant) who wishes to pursue a concern arising from an alleged harassment may submit a complaint in writing within 60 calendar days of the latest alleged occurrence directly to the Chief Administrative Officer. Upon receipt of the written complaint, the Employer will determine the level of investigation required and will investigate the complaint. The Employer will notify, in writing, the designated union staff representative of the complaint as early as is reasonably appropriate. Complaints of this nature shall be treated in strict confidence by both the Union and the Employer.

A written complaint shall specify the details of the allegation(s) including:

- name, title and work location of the respondent;
 - a description of the action(s), conduct, events or circumstances involved in the complaint;
 - date(s) of incidents;
 - name(s) of witnesses (if any);
 - prior attempts to resolve (if any).
- (c) An alleged harasser (respondent) shall be given notice of the substance of such a complaint under this article by the Chief Administrative Officer and shall be entitled to attend, participate in, and be represented at any hearing pursuant to (i) below.

The Chief Administrative Officer shall within 10 workdays of receipt of the reports give such orders as may be necessary to resolve the issue. The complainant and the respondent shall be apprised of the Chief Administrative Officer's resolution.

(e) Both the complainant and the respondent shall be given the option of having a steward present at any meeting held pursuant to Article 10.3.

(f) Pending determination of the complaint, the Chief Administrative Officer may take interim measure to separate the employees concerned if deemed necessary.

(g) In cases where harassment may result in the transfer of an employee, every effort will be made to relocate the harasser, except that the complainant may be transferred with their written consent.

(h) In the case of alleged harassment by a client or a member of the general public, the employee claiming to be harassed has the right to discontinue contact with the alleged offender without incurring any penalty, pending determination of the facts of the case.

(i) Where either the complainant or the respondent, in conjunction with the Union, is not satisfied with the Chief Administrative Officer's or designates' response, the Union will put the complaint, within 30 calendar days, before a mutually agreed upon, independent adjudicator who specializes in cases of personal harassment or sexual harassment. - (3) make further recommendations as are necessary to provide a final and conclusive settlement of the complaint.

(j) Where the alleged harasser is the Chief Administrative Officer, the complaint shall be filed in writing within 60 calendar days of the latest alleged occurrence through the Union to the Chair of the Board of the Employer. The matter shall be referred to a mutually agreed upon independent single investigator who specializes in cases of personal or sexual harassment. The CRD Chair will be the Employer's representative. The independent single investigator will conduct an investigation and submit recommendations to the parties within 20 calendar days of being appointed.

(k) (1) Where the complaint is determined to be of a frivolous, vindictive or vexatious nature, the Employer will take appropriate action which may include discipline of the complainant. This article does not preclude an employee from filing a complaint under Section 13 of the BC Human Rights Code.

(2) Complaints under this article shall be treated in strict confidence by all parties involved.

The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise concerning:

- (a) Differences between the parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of a provision of this agreement or arbitral award, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration; or
- (b) The dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee bound by this agreement.
- (c) Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand and adverse reports or employees' appraisals. An employee shall be given a copy of any such document placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in their file, they shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of their personnel record. Upon the employee's request any such document, other than formal employee appraisals, shall be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of 18 months from the date it was issued provided there has not been a further infraction. The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing.

8.2 Step 1

In the first step of the grievance procedure, every effort shall be made to settle the dispute with the designated local supervisor. The aggrieved employee shall have the right to have their steward present at such discussion. If the dispute is not resolved orally, the aggrieved employee may submit a written grievance, through the union steward, to Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

8.3 Time Limit to Present Initial Grievance

An employee who wishes to present a grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, in the manner prescribed in Clause 8.4, must do so not later than 30 calendar days after the date:

- (a) on which they were notified orally or in writing, of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance; or
- (b) on which they first became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

8.4 Step 2

- (a) Subject to the time limits in Clause 8.3, the employee may present a grievance at this level by:
 - (1) recording this grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;
 - (2) stating the article or articles of the agreement infringed upon or alleged to have been violated, and the remedy or correction required; and
 - (3) transmitting this grievance to the Chief Administrative Officer or designate through the union steward.

(b) The Employer shall:

- (1) provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received.

8.5 Time Limit to Reply at Step 2

8.6 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 2 and pursuant to Article 9 - Arbitration, the President, or their designate, may inform the Employer in writing of their intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:

- (a) 30 calendar days after the Employer's decision has been received; or
- (b) 30 calendar days after the Employer's decision was due.

8.7 Administrative Provisions

Where a grievance or a reply is presented by mail, it shall be deemed to be presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it shall be deemed to be received on the day it was delivered to the appropriate office of the Employer or the Union.

(b) Failure to initiate or process a grievance in accordance with the stipulated time limits or those that are mutually altered will result in abandonment or forfeiture of the grievance as the case may be.

(c) Grievances and replies (at Step 2, and filing with intent to arbitrate) which are required in writing, shall be sent by registered mail, facsimile transmission, or other mutually agreeable means. Receipt of facsimile transmissions must be confirmed by the appropriate office in which they are received.

8.8 Dismissal or Suspension Grievance

In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal or suspension, the grievance may commence at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within 30 calendar days of the date on which the suspension occurred, or within 30 calendar days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal or notice of suspension.

8.9 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer's representatives will not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union. In the event that, after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that, pursuant to this article, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.

8.10 Policy Grievance

Where either party disputes the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of an article of this agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer or the Union as the case may be. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 9 of this agreement.

8.11 Grievance Investigator

If a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the term of the collective agreement a mutually agreed upon person from the list in Article 9.2, shall at the request of either party:

8.12 Pre-Arbitration Meeting

Representatives of the parties agree to meet within 15 calendar days or such other time period as mutually agreed, after a notice of intention to arbitrate has been served by one of the parties. The purpose of this meeting will be a further review of the facts and positions with a view to resolving the matter. If a resolution does not result, the parties agree to explore alternatives to formal arbitration e.g.: mediation/arbitration or expedited arbitration. Terms of reference and procedure for the latter will be developed on a case-by-case basis and recorded in a memorandum of understanding.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION9.1 Notification

Should none of the arbitrators have availability within that time frame, then the parties may, by mutual agreement, select an alternative arbitrator.

9.3 Arbitration Board Procedure

The Arbitrator shall determine the procedure for resolving a dispute subject to the principles of fair and equitable treatment of the parties and the rules of natural justice. The decision of the Arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties.

9.4 Restrictions on the Arbitrator

The Arbitrator is restricted to dealing with the questions designated in Clause 8.1 above and shall not have the power to change this agreement by adding, deleting, amending, altering or modifying any of its terms and conditions.

9.5 Costs

The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator will be shared equally by the parties.

9.6 Expedited Arbitration

- (5) Grievances requiring substantial interpretation of a provision of this agreement;
- (6) Grievances requiring presentation of extrinsic evidence;
- (7) Grievances where a party intends to raise a preliminary objection;
- (8) Demotions.

By mutual agreement, a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process.

(c) The parties shall mutually agree upon single arbitrators who shall be appointed to hear and resolve groups of grievances.

(d) The Arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.

(e) The parties will limit their use of authorities.

(f) The parties will not use outside counsel.

(g) Arbitration awards shall be of no precedential value and shall not thereafter be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter.

(h) All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.

(i) A grievance determined by either party to fall within one of the categories listed in (b) above, may be removed from the expedited arbitration process at any time prior to hearing and forwarded to a regular arbitration hearing pursuant to Clause 9.2.

10.2 Rejection During Probation

The Employer may dismiss a probationary employee for just cause. The test of dismissal for just cause shall be a test of suitability for the probationary employee for continued employment in the position to which they have been appointed, provided that the factors involved in suitability could reasonably be expected to affect work performance. A probationary period extension may be considered in accordance with Article 12.7.

10.3 Right to Have a Steward Present

(a) An employee shall have the right to have a steward present at any meeting with a supervisor or management involving disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact their steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. This clause shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature and do not involve disciplinary action.

(b) A steward shall have the right to consult with a staff representative of the Union and to have a local union representative present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the steward believes might be the basis of disciplinary action against the steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

10.4 Access to Personnel File

An employee, or the President of the Union or their designate with the written authority of the employee, shall be entitled to review the employee's personnel file, both paper and, if applicable, electronic, in the office in which the file is normally kept, in order to facilitate the investigation of a grievance. The employee, or the President or their designate, as the case may be, shall give the Employer adequate notice prior to having access to such file.

It is understood that some information on an employee's file, involving a third party, could be subject to the "Freedom of information and Protection of Privacy Act".

Both parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of layoff, employees shall be laid off by classification in the reverse order of their bargaining-unit-wide seniority. An employee about to be laid off may bump any employee with less seniority, providing the employee exercising the right is qualified to perform the work of the less senior employee. Such employee shall be entitled to a reasonable familiarization period to demonstrate their ability to perform the work of up to a maximum of three months duration.

13.2 Notification of Layoff

Unless legislation is more favourable to the employees, the Employer shall notify the employees who are to be laid off 15 working days prior to the effective date of layoff. 14.7 Application of Seniority to Part-Time and Casual Work

In allocating part-time and casual work, the Employer will recognize the seniority of the employees, provided the employee is qualified to perform the work available. It is understood that employees may register for work at more than one worksite, however, the Employer is not obligated to offer work to an employee who has not pre-registered with the supervisor of the operation concerned. Wherever possible, no employee will be scheduled so as to have less than two consecutive days of rest in any calendar week.

Employees must quarterly (January 1st, April 1st, July 1st, October 1st) declare how many hours per week they will be available for casual work before being placed on a call-in list for a specific location. All employees on a call-in list must advise their supervisor if their declared availability changes.

In order to be placed or remain on a call-in list, part-time employees must be available for a minimum of 14 hours per week and be willing to accept daytime, evening and weekend shifts. Casual employees must be available for a minimum of 20 hours per week, including daytime, evenings and weekends. If an employee's availability falls below the minimum requirement they will be removed from the call-in list. All employees on the call-in list must provide a designated method of contact such as email/text or telephone call. If the contact doesn't respond within 10 minutes, then the next person on the list will be contacted and so on down the list until the vacancy is filled.

Part-time employees are considered unavailable for any casual shifts that conflict with their regular part-time hours or approved leave. In these cases, staff will not be contacted regarding available shifts and those shifts will not be considered as refused.

Casual employees who will be unavailable for shifts due to vacation, illness, or emergency must advise their supervisor immediately to avoid being recorded as 'refused' when being contacted to fill an available shift.

Part-time staff who refuse three consecutive shifts will be moved to the bottom of the call-in list at that location. Casual Employees that refuse three consecutive shifts shall be removed from the list and their employment terminated.

A refusal will include not accepting an available shift, not responding within 10 minutes of the contact method provided by the employee, cancelling an accepted shift, or not showing up to work an accepted shift.

- (c) The Employer will select the dates to which the regularly scheduled shift is rescheduled. It is the intent of the parties not to unreasonably restrict the requests for rescheduling. The Employer will make best efforts to accommodate each part-time employee's request. If the Employer cannot accommodate all requests, allocation to a rescheduled shift will be done on the basis of seniority.

- (d) As an exception, and where operationally no option to accommodate a rescheduled shift exists during the period from December 1st to January 31st, the Employer will set the rescheduled shift outside the period.
- (e) In the event that a request to reschedule a regularly scheduled shift between December 24th and January 2nd cannot be accommodated, the Employer will extend the opportunity to reschedule a regularly scheduled shift to a mutually agreeable date before March 31st.

The parties agree to implement a modified workweek for full-time employees on the following basis:

1. All full-time employees working in the Williams Lake Regional District Office and Williams Lake Library Network are entitled to participate in the modified workweek program.
2. Effective upon ratification of this agreement, those employees eligible for and opting to participate in the modified work schedule will be based on a seven and one-half hour workday and the employees will work at 5x2; 5x2; 5x2; 4x3 rotation.
