Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the management, supervision, and control of the Employer's operation and the direction of the working force shall remain the exclusive function of Management, provided that such management and direction does not contravene the express provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE NO. 2 UNION RECOGNITION

2.01 Bargaining Authority

The Employer recognizes the Teamsters Local Union No. 31 as the sole bargaining agency on behalf of its Employees for which the Union is certified under the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

2.02 Copies of Agreement

This agreement shall be binding upon the Employer and every Employee in the Bargaining Unit for which the Union has been certified. Within thirty (30) days of the signing of this agreement the

2.04 Bulletin Boards

The Employer will provide accessible bulletin boards at each worksite where Bargaining Unit members work for the posting of this Agreement and for such notices as the Union may, from time to time, wish to post. 2.07 Disputed Goods

It shall not be a violation of employment or cause for discipline for an Employee to refuse to handle, use, receive, ship, or transport any product, materials, or equipment that has come from behind a legal picket line. It is recognized that this provision does not apply to the handling of goods which have been seized pursuant to a police investigation, or the handling of goods which are required to maintain the operation of essential services.

2.08 Controversy with Other Union

2.12 Consultations Privileges

The Employer shall provide authorized agents of the Union with access to available meeting rooms in the Police Building in order to meet with Shop Stewards and Union members or resolve disputes. Authorized agents of the Union shall also have access to all worksite premises for the purpose of inspecting conditions and ensuring compliance with this Agreement. Such visits shall not interfere with the operations or security requirements of the Employer.

2.13 Leave of Absence for Union Business

A leave of absence without pay, and without loss of seniority, shall be granted, provided such absence does not interfere with the efficient operations of the Employer for:

- (a) Up to four (4) members of the Union appointed to attend official Union functions such as a convention, council, or education course, may be granted up to five (5) working days unpaid leave of absence once in each calendar year, provided the Union gives at least two (2) weeks' written notice, in advance, of the leave to the Employer;
- (b) Employees who are representatives of the Union on a Bargaining Committee to attend meetings of the Bargaining Committee;
- (c) Employees called by the Union to appear as witnesses before an Arbitration Board or the BC Labour Relations Board.

When leave without pay is granted it shall be given with basic pay and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for salary. The Union shall provide the Employer with reasonable notice prior to the commencement of leave under this Section. The Employer agrees that any of the above leaves of absence shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE NO. 6 DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

Such disciplinary action shall be in writing and shall be given to the Employee and the Union within fourteen (14) calendar days of the disciplinary action taken by the Employer. If this procedure is not followed, such disciplinary action shall not become part of their record for use against them in regard to discharge, discipline, promotion, demotion, or other related matters. Should an Employee dispute any such entry on their file, then they shall be entitled to recourse through the Grievance Procedure. The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence at any hearing any document from the file of an Employee, the existence of which the Employee was not aware at the time of filing.

Where there is no Shop Steward on duty at the time of the meeting and an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken would result, the Employer will attempt to notify a Shop Steward or Union Representative to arrange for representation. If representation is not available the Employer will take steps as it deems necessary in the absence of representation which may include suspending the Employee until representation is available. This Section shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational or investigative nature and do not involve disciplinary action.

Casual Employee seniority shall be pro rata based on hours worked and, where there is a transfer between Casual and Full or Part-Time positions, seniority shall be determined on a pro rata basis on the regular annual hours for the Full or Part-Time position being transferred to or from. When Casual Employees are promoted or accepted to Regular Full or Part-Time positions, their seniority shall be calculated by dividing the total number of hours worked by either 1820 and/or 2080

(whichever is applicable) to establish the equivalent years of service for the purpose of establishing seniority. This pro rata seniority date for Casual Employees shall also be applicable for vacation entitlement purposes.

7.02 Seniority Lists

The Employer shall maintain an up-to-date list showing the seniority for all Employees. The seniority list will also provide the total accumulated hours for each Casual Employee. This list will be posted every fourth pay period.

7.03 Seniority Lost

Seniority shall be lost for the following reasons;

- (a) Voluntary severance of employment;
- (b) If twelve (12) months have elapsed from the date of layoff for Employees with less than one (1) year of service;
- (c) If twenty-four (24) months have elapsed from the date of layoff for Employees with one (1) or more years' service;

- (g) Failing to return to work within ninety (90) days following receiving an honourable discharge from service with the Canadian Armed Forces during a national emergency;
- (h) Failing to return to work following a leave of absence provided in accordance with Article 17 of this Agreement;
- (i) Employees with at least one (1) years' service, if three (3) years have elapsed from date of commencement of absence due to a bona fide sickness or injury attested to by a qualified medical practitioner.

7.04 Seniority While Outside Bargaining Unit

- (b) At the end of the ninety (90) calendar days period, the Employee must exercise their seniority rights by returning to their former position or relinquish all such seniority rights. Should the Employee return to the Bargaining Unit, they must remain within the Bargaining Unit for a minimum period of one hundred twenty (120) calendar days prior to accepting work outside the Bargaining Unit. If the Employee's previous position is discontinued when they are returned to the Bargaining Unit, the Employee shall exercise their seniority in accordance with Article 9 of this Collective Agreement.

- (c) The period of ninety (90) calendar days referred to in this Section may, with the consent of the Employee, the Employer and the Union, be extended to a maximum of one hundred eighty (180) calendar days.
- (d) The Employer agrees to advise the Union, in writing, whenever an Employee has been temporarily transferred from the Bargaining Unit to a non-union position. - (e) Where a Probationary Employee accepts a position other than the position the Employee was hired for, the probationary period for the new position will be ninety (90) days worked and the initial probationary period is deemed to recommence.

8.02 Job Posting

- (a) It is agreed that, before filling any Full-Time, Part-Time or Temporary position within the scope of this Agreement, notice thereof shall be posted at every job site and on the intranet for a period of fourteen (14) full calendar days before the posting process is closed and during which all interested Employees may submit an application to Human Resources. All qualified Union applicants shall be interviewed, where applicable, before other applicants are considered. The Employer will have thirty (30) full calendar days to interview applicants and identify a successful applicant. It is agreed between the Parties that a vacancy or new position can be filled by a Temporary Employee in the interim.
- (b) If the Employer determines that the vacant position should not be posted or should be withdrawn at any time before the closing date, the Employer shall notify the Union of the reasons for its decision.

The Union recognizes that Employees are required to perform the duties assigned to them unless there are circumstances communicated to the Employer that prevent them from doing so. The Employer recognizes that those circumstances communicated must be taken into consideration when making the request under 8.06 and efforts made to accommodate those requests.

Where an Employee is assigned work by the Employer in a higher wage classification, the higher wage shall prevail for the hours worked in the higher classification providing the Employee is performing the core duties of the position.

8.07 Extended Temporary Transfer

Where the Employer identifies a vacancy with an unforeseen return date and/or a special project that is anticipated to last longer than thirty (30) calendar days, the Employer will post and email an Expression of Interest (EOI). The EOI will outline the job description and anticipated time

The Employer will select the most senior Employee if, in the opinion of the Employer:

- a. The Employee is qualified, and;
- b. The Employer has determined that the Employee is releasable from their current position.

If no Employees are identified through the EOI that are both qualified and releasable, then a qualified candidate from the Casual Pool will be assigned to the position.

The role of a Casual Employee is to provide backfill for Full-Time staff who may be away from work for a variety of reasons including, but not limited to, annual leave, sick leave, etc. In addition, a Casual Employee may be used for scheduling as required. The availability of Casual Employees is inherently important to the operation of the Abbotsford Police Department. Any refusal to work an assigned shift will be considered a decline for the purposes of 10.05(c). - (c) If a Casual Employee declines three (3) shifts in a rolling ninety (90) day period, offered by the Employer, except for days of rest and pre-determined unavailability as defined in this Article, then that Employee shall be moved to the Only one (1) decline can be assigned in a twenty-four (24) hour period.

10.07 Irregular Work Hours/Days/Week

Except where otherwise provided in this Agreement, where the nature of a department, division of a department, or occupation requires a six (6) or seven (7) day per week operation, the normal work day shall not exceed seven (7) or eight (8) consecutive hours of work and the normal work week for Full-Time and Temporary Employees in such operations may be any five (5) consecutive days with two (2) consecutive days of rest with the agreement of the Parties, and neither Party shall be unreasonable in the operation of this Clause.

10.08 Special Shift

A special shift shall be defined as the regularly scheduled number of hours in a twenty-four (24) hour period commencing at a time other than 8:00a.m., providing the shift continues for two (2) consecutive days. If an Employee does not work five (5) consecutive days and, because of the difficulties of changing back to a regular shift, does not work thirty-five (35) or forty (40) hours in the week, the Employer agrees to guarantee a thirty-five (35) or forty (40) hour week. Any Employee required to work a special shift shall be paid a shift differential of 6% an hour for each hour worked outside of the regular hours of work as noted in Clause 10.06(a). Except in times of emergencies, forty-eight (48) hours' notice shall be given before change of a regular shift. This provision does not provide for the changing of a thirty-five (35) to a forty (40) hour work week, or vice versa.

10.09 Shift Premium

For any hours required by the Employer to be worked between 6:00p.m. and 7:00a.m., other than during special shift, the Employee shall be paid 6% per hour bonus, provided that overtime rates do not apply during such hours. All Employees working during the shift affected by the "Fall Back" time change shall be paid in accordance with Article 12.01(c) for the additional hour worked.

10.13 Modified Work Week

The Employer recognizes the benefits of a modified work week. The Employer may allow the Employee to work a modified work week, where it is cost neutral and in the interest of the Employer and Employee.

The modified work week may be discontinued at any time by either Party by giving thirty (30) days written notice to the other Party of its desire to terminate the modified work week.

The Employer will confirm in writing the approved modified work week schedule to both the affected Employee(s) and the Union.

In order to achieve cost neutrality regarding Statutory Holidays for a modified work week, the Employer and the Union agree that, Employees working a form of work week other than the standard work week (Schedule "A" or Schedule "B") will have their hours adjusted for Statutory Holidays; seven (7) hours for Schedule "A" and eight (8) hours for Schedule "B".

Employees working a modified work week will experience a shortfall in hours when a Statutory Holiday falls in the pay period. Employees will be required to make up the shortfall of hours in the pay period by either working the additional hours or utilizing accrued vacation or banked time. Additional hours worked will be made up at a mutually agreed upon time between the Employee and their supervisor without invoking overtime.

In addition, they shall be entitled to Statutory Holiday pay in an amount equal to their regular rate of pay for seven (7) hours.
- (f) An Employee who is not scheduled to work on the day of a Statutory Holiday will, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to seven (7) hours Statutory Holiday pay at their regular hourly rate.
- (g) If the normal work day for an Employee falls on a Statutory Holiday, and the Employee is authorized to take the Statutory Holiday off, the Employee's vacation or overtime bank will be deducted by ten (10) hours and the Employee will receive an amount equal to seven (7) hours pay at the regular hourly rate of pay.
- (h) Overtime for each Employee will apply following the completion of ten (10) consecutive hours of work. Time for meal breaks, if paid, will not be considered as hours worked for the purpose of computing overtime. Because the shift schedule provides for four (4) consecutive days off, the following will apply in determining overtime pay:

- (a) The first day off will be the first day of rest;
 - (b) The second day off will be the second day of rest;
 - (c) The third day off will be the first day of rest;
 - (d) The fourth day off will be the second day of rest.
- (i) Employees working the Special Shift who are required to attend courses, workshops, etc. shall attend on the basis of a seven (7) hour day and this shall not be a cost factor to the Employer, nor shall the Employee suffer a loss.
 - (j) The backfill procedure for unexpected absences or illnesses will be administered by the Court Liaison Officers.
 - (k) Upon any permanent Full-Time vacancy within the Court Liaison Unit, a seniority-based bidding process shall commence for the vacant special shift position(s) and the Schedule A (Monday to Friday) position amongst the existing Full-Time employees within the unit. Following the conclusion of the bidding process, the remaining shift and vacant position shall be posted consistent with this Collective Agreement.

Letter of Understanding No. 2

Shift Premium

The Employer and the Union agree to an amendment of provision 10.09 of the Collective Agreement:

For any hours required by the Employer to be worked between 1800 and 700 hours, the Employee shall be paid a shift differential premium of 6% of their regular hourly wage for all time required to work during that period, including any overtime hours.

This amendment does not supersede Section 8(a) of Letter of Understanding No. 3, 11½ Hour Shift which states that there will be no shift differential for Employees working the 0600 to 1800 hours shift.

Letter of Understanding No. 3

11½ Hour Shift

The Abbotsford Police Board (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer") and Teamsters Local Union No. 31 (hereinafter referred to as the "Union") agree that the eleven and one half (11½) hour shift (hereinafter referred to as the "Special Shift") shall be administered in accordance with the following provisions:

- (1) Shift schedules operating under the Special Shift provisions will be evaluated every six (6) months.
- (2) Shift schedules operating under the Special Shift provisions may be discontinued at any time by either Party giving sixty (60) days written notice to the other Party. A joint committee, consisting of two (2) representatives from the Employer and two (2) representatives from the Union, shall be established to review the matter prior to discontinuation of the shift schedule.
- (3) The Special Shift positions shall work two day shifts (exclusive of a thirty [30] minute meal break) followed by two (2) night shifts (exclusive of a thirty [30] minute meal break), or four (4) consecutive afternoon shifts and then shall have scheduled periods of rest according to item #5 of this Letter of Understanding.

Effective date of signing, shifts shall be as follows:

- Day Shift 0600 to 1800 hours
- Night Shift 1800 to 0600 hours

- (4) In each shift, Employees will be relieved for one (1) unpaid thirty (30) minute meal break and two (2) twenty-two and one half (22½) minute rest periods. Subject to the approval of the Supervisor, the thirty (30) minute meal break will be paid at overtime rates if the Employee is not relieved for such meal break.
- (5) The work of the Employee is required to be performed continuously and on every day, including Statutory Holidays, throughout the year, Sections 14.01, 14.03 and 14.04 of Article 14 of this Agreement would not apply and therefore:
 - (a) If an Employee's normal work day falls on a Statutory Holiday and they do work on that day, they shall be paid at the regular hourly rate for each hour worked, and paid or credited for 5.75 hours of overtime at the regular hourly rate. In addition, they shall be entitled to Statutory Holiday pay in an amount equal to their regular rate of pay for eight (8) hours. It is understood that a Statutory Holiday is defined as a calendar day beginning at midnight and ending at midnight.

- (b) An Employee who is not scheduled to work on the day of a Statutory Holiday will, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to eight (8) hours Statutory Holiday pay at their regular hourly rate.
 - (c) If the normal work day for an Employee falls on a Statutory Holiday, and the Employee is authorized to take the Statutory Holiday off, the Employee's vacation or overtime bank will be deducted by eleven and one half (11½) hours and the Employee will receive an amount equal to eight (8) hours pay at the regular hourly rate of pay. In other words, the Employee will receive nineteen and one half (19½) hours in pay for the day of the Statutory holiday.
 - (d) Where an Employee is required to work a shift which commences on the day previous to a Statutory Holiday and such shift finishes on a Statutory Holiday, the Employee shall receive compensation at the rate of straight time in pay for all hours worked on such shift. The hours of such shift which fall on the Statutory Holiday shall not be considered time worked on the Statutory Holiday.
 - (e) Where an Employee is required to work a shift which commences on a Statutory Holiday, and such shift finishes on the day following the Statutory Holiday, all of the hours worked on such shift shall be considered time worked on the Statutory Holiday.
- (6) Conversion of cost factors from eight (8) hour to eleven and one half (11½) hour shifts, or benefits based on the working period, are to be made so that there will be no increase in costs to the Employer and no loss to Union members in these conversions; for example: one (1) day of vacation would equal eight (8) hours; twelve (12) Statutory Holidays would be equal to ninety-six (96) hours; sick leave, if earned, would be granted as eighteen (18) days per year would be equated as one hundred forty-four (144) hours; and etc.
- (7) (a) Employees working the 1800 to 0600 hours shift would be paid the normal specified rate of shift differential for all hours worked. There will be no shift differential for Employees working the 0600 to 1800 hours shift.
- (b) The Employer may advance or delay start times for any Employee, without penalty, for up to two (2) hours in either direction of the scheduled start time with three (3) days' notice; however, in the case of emergency operational requirements, no notice is required.
- (c) Where it becomes necessary for the Employer to change Employee shift schedules the changes will be made on a seniority basis unless operational requirements require otherwise.
- (8) Overtime for each Employee will apply following the completion of eleven and one half (11½) consecutive hours of work. Time for meal breaks, if paid, will not be considered as hours worked for the purpose of computing overtime. Because the shift schedule provides for four (4) consecutive days off, the following will apply in determining overtime pay:

- (a) The first day off will be the first day of rest;
- (b) The second day off will be the second day of rest;
- (c) The third day off will be the first day of rest;
- (d) The fourth day off will be the second day of rest.

In administering overtime, it is understood that no pyramiding will occur in that an Employee will not be paid overtime and premium pay for the same hours worked.

Casual Employees may work up to ninety-two (92) hours in a bi-weekly pay period without incurring overtime except as specifically provided under the Collective Agreement. Casual Employees who work four (4) consecutive eleven and one half (11½) hour shifts are entitled to four (4) consecutive days off.

- (9) Definitions of the work day and the work week for Special Shift Employees shall be considered to have been revised to conform to the 11½ hour shift.
- (10) Employees working the Special Shift who are required to attend courses, workshops, etc., shall attend on the basis of an eight (8) hour day and this shall not be a cost factor to the Employer, nor shall the Employee suffer a loss.

Full-Time Special Shift Employees will be shift levelled and paid for eighty (80) hours of work in each bi-weekly pay period.

The Employer will only reconcile a shift level bank, on a case by case basis, when an Employee permanently leaves a Special Shift.

- (11) The parties agree that the Special Shift applies only to Police Clerk II – Transcriber.

Letter of Understanding No. 4

Integration of Services

Where the Employer intends to enter into an arrangement with other law enforcement agency(s), for the purpose of providing an integrated service, the Employer shall be permitted to do so without being in violation of Letter of Understanding No. 6.

It is understood the integrated service could be provided by the Abbotsford Police Department, another police agency(s), or third party.

The Employer will work with the Union to endeavor to secure employment opportunities within the new structure for as many affected Employees as possible.

Letter of Understanding No. 5

Job Sharing

The Employer and the Union agree that, where an Employee wishes to share a Full-Time position, such job sharing agreements be mutually agreed upon using the following principles, provided that nothing in this Letter of Understanding shall be construed as altering the existing rights and/or obligations of either Party under the Collective Agreement, except as specifically provided herein.

General

Where an Employee who occupies a regular Full-Time position wishes to share their position with another Employee who, in the opinion of the Employer, is qualified to perform the duties, and has received formal approval from the Chief Constable (or designate of the Chief Constable) and the Union, the Employee shall be entitled to do so in accordance with the provisions of this Letter of Understanding. The Employer recognizes the positions will be filled in seniority order within the section, offered first to regular Full-Time Employees, second to Part-Time Employees, and last to Casual Employees. The Employee and the Union shall administer this procedure. If a Full-Time or Part-Time Employee agrees to partner in the job share, after ninety (90) calendar days, they shall relinquish their position.

Procedure

- (a) The Employee wishing to job share shall first jointly apply with their job sharing partner, in writing, to the appropriate Branch Manager, indicating the reason for the request, including the position and the shift where the job sharing is to occur. Copies of this application shall be forwarded to Human Resources, and the Union.
- (b) Where the Employee's application is approved by both the Chief Constable and the Union, Human Resources will provide each affected Employee with a letter covering the terms and conditions of the job sharing arrangement, as specified in this Letter of Understanding, which must be signed by both the Employer and the Union.
- (c) The regular daily and weekly hours of the position being shared shall remain unchanged as a result of the job sharing arrangement, unless such hours are specifically varied by the terms and conditions of the letter referred to in paragraph (ii) above.
- (d) Where the application to job share is denied, the Union or the Employer, as the case may be, shall notify in writing the interested parties and state the grounds which must be reasonable. The Employer or Union may request a meeting to discuss the matter.

Duration

- (a) Each job sharing arrangement shall be for a period of one (1) year, unless extended or reduced by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.
- (b) Employees who wish to extend or reduce job sharing arrangement, must make application as provided for Section (b) above, and must provide thirty (30) days' notice to the Employer and the Union.
- (c) In all cases where the job share agreement is terminated the Full-Time Employee who requested the job share shall revert to their original position, unless an alternative job-sharing arrangement has been approved in the interim.
- (d) In the case where the job share agreement is terminated within ninety (90) calendar days, a Full-Time or Part-Time job share partner will return to their previous position. If the job share agreement is terminated after ninety (90) calendar days, the Full-Time or Part-Time job share partner will be placed in the Casual pool and their status shall be changed to Casual.
- (e) Upon termination of the job share agreement, where the job share partner is a Casual Employee, the Casual Employee shall return to the Casual pool.

Employee Status and Working Conditions

- (a) Employees in a job sharing arrangement shall continue to maintain their original Employee status during the period of time covered by the job sharing arrangement, and shall accumulate pro rata seniority in accordance with the Employee's scheduled hours of work in the job sharing arrangement. Such an Employee shall be entitled to use accumulated seniority for all applicable purposes set out in the Collective Agreement.
- (b) The general principles with respect to Employee benefit entitlement, vacations entitlement, sick leave and other benefit provided within the Collective Agreement, shall be pro rata in accordance with the hours of work in the job sharing arrangement.

Assignment of Extra Shifts

Full-Time Employees while on job share shall be placed at the bottom of the Casual Employee call-out list for the purpose of accepting shifts in addition to their own. Once the Full-Time Employee accepts a shift, their seniority will apply.

Termination of Letter of Understanding

Either Party may cancel this Letter of Understanding by providing at least thirty (30) days written notice to the other Party. Notwithstanding such cancellation, all job sharing arrangements in effect at the time of cancellation shall continue under the individual terms agreed upon.

Letter of Understanding No. 6

Contracting Out

The Employer has the right to contract out to any part of its operation. No Full-Time or Casual Employees in the service of the Employer, at January 1, 2004, will be laid off as a direct and immediate result of contracting out.

Letter of Understanding No. 7
