9.2 Step 1

In the first step of the grievance procedure, every effort shall be made to settle the dispute with the immediate supervisor. The aggrieved employee shall have the right to have their steward present at such a discussion. If the dispute is not resolved orally, the aggrieved employee may submit a written grievance, through the union steward, to Step 2 of the grievance procedure. 9.3 Time Limits to Present Initial Grievance

An employee who wishes to present a grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, in the manner prescribed in Clause 9.4, must do so no later than 30 calendar days after the date;

 - (1) recording this grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;
 - (2) stating the article or articles of the agreement violated or alleged to have been violated, and the remedy or correction required; and
 - (3) transmitting this grievance to the immediate supervisor and/or designate through the union steward.
- (b) The Director shall provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received.

9.5 Time Limits to Reply to Step 2

- (a) Within 10 calendar days of receiving the grievance at Step 2, the representative of the Employer, the employee and the shop steward shall meet to examine the facts, the nature of the grievance and attempt to resolve the dispute. This meeting may be waived by mutual agreement.
- (b) The Director or designate at Step 2 shall reply in writing to the Union within 14 calendar days of receiving the grievance at Step 2.

9.6 Failure to Act

If the President of the Union, or designate, does not present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits, the grievance will be deemed to be abandoned. However, the Union shall not be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance.

9.7 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 2, and pursuant to Article 10, the President, or their designate, may inform the Employer of their intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:

- (a) thirty days after the Employer's decision has been received.
- (b) thirty days after the Employer's decision is due.

9.8 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties, but the same must be in writing. Where a grievance or a reply is presented by mail, it shall be deemed to be presented on the day on which it is postmarked, and it shall be deemed to be received on the day it was delivered to the appropriate office of the Employer or the Union. Grievances and replies at Step 2 of the grievance procedure and notification to arbitrate shall be by certified mail or facsimile.

9.9 Dismissal or Suspension Grievances

- (a) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal, the grievance may be filed directly at Step 2, within 30 days of the date on which the dismissal occurred, or within 30 days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT 1 Job Sharing

1. Definition

Job sharing shall be defined as a voluntary work arrangement whereby the duties and responsibilities of one full-time position may be shared in a manner that would accommodate two employees. Any job sharing arrangement shall be in writing and signed by the employees and the Employer. Any job sharing arrangement will not result in added costs to the Employer.

2. Application Process

The employees wishing to enter into a job share arrangement will apply in writing to the Employer and forward a copy to the Union outlining the proposed commencement date of the job share, how the hours and days of work will be shared and how communication and continuity of work will be maintained.

The Employer shall communicate a decision on a job share request in writing to the applicants. Applications to Job Sharing shall not be unreasonably denied.

3. Number of Employees

The Union and the Employer agree that no more than one position in each program shall be covered by a Job Sharing Agreement at any one time.

No more than two employees may share one full-time position.

The position being shared shall remain a regular full-time position within the bargaining unit.

4. Employee Wages and Benefits

The job sharing arrangement shall be treated as a full-time position with respect to wages, paid holidays, leaves, vacation and health and welfare benefits and shall be prorated.

5. Layoff and Recall

Where a senior employee exercises their rights, as provided for in Article 13 of the collective agreement, the following will apply:

- (a) where the two employees involved in the Job Sharing Agreement are junior to the person exercising their rights under Article 13, then the senior employee shall be placed in the position;

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT 2 Casual Call-In Procedure

Casuals will be called to cover for absent permanent staff members (i.e. on vacation or off sick). They may also be called to cover the child-to-staff ratio for a temporary period of time.

Policy:

Qualified casuals will be called in order of seniority within the program, up to their allowable maximum straight-time.

Procedure:

The senior qualified casual will be called first. If the senior qualified casual is not available, APTG will call the next qualified senior casual employee available until APTG is able to fill the shift.

A casual employee who accepts a shift is deemed responsible for that shift. If an accepted shift is cancelled more than three times within one calendar year, without exceptional circumstances, the casual employee will lose all seniority hours and be placed at the bottom of the call-in list.

Casual Call-In Logbook:

For each call, the caller will record the following:

- The position and shift requiring filling, including the date and time of the shift.
- The date and time of the call.
- The casual employee's response (accepted, denied, no answer, etc.).
- The initials of the caller.

Calls from the centre will be logged in the "Casual Call-In Logbook". Casuals called outside the centre's operating hours will be logged on the "Casual Call-In Log Form".

Criteria:

It is the responsibility of the casual to notify the centre quarterly of their availability. Casual employees not available for an entire block of shifts may not be called for relief.

If the casual has not contacted the centre or worked for a period of three months, they will be considered inactive, removed from the casual call-in list and a Record of Employment will be issued.

The casual employee is responsible for:

- Supplying APTG with contact phone numbers.
- Being aware of their scheduled hours of work once they are assigned.
- Obtaining prior approval for any overtime from the Director or PIC.
- Completing and submitting time sheets.
- Casual availability must be in full shifts only on any given day(s) of the normal week.
